

It's Mid-Winter

let's revel in the natural potency of this moment & get creative!

Spring is coming. It's time to "plant your ideas and leave them to germinate. Bring your visions and inner understandings out through poetry, song and art." -Glennie Kindred

Let's harness the energy of this season through a:

Yoga Church Creativity Challenge

I love to _____, but don't often make time for it.
I commit to make a little bit of time (even just 5 minutes) every day (or at least most days) and express my creativity!

Have fun checking boxes:
